Community Aid work

- The Community Centre is used regularly as the venue for meetings by the village people. Organisations which help out with micro-finance such as ‘BAT’ use the premises for their weekly meetings with around 30 beneficiaries each time.
- The English and computer classes which are provided free of charge by the Centre to the children of the surrounding villages have proved to be a great success.
- The Library continues to be used well by children and adults who come to read news papers as well as borrow books.
- The patchwork sewing classes continue to be well attended with much inter
